

THE CALIFORNIA FARM DIRECTORY

FIND LOCAL FAMILY FARMS NEAR YOU!

This online resource makes it easy for consumers, buyers and the general public to conveniently find farms and farm products anywhere in the Golden State, with handy filters to narrow by crop, location, practices and more. PUT YOUR FARM ON THE MAP!

It's totally FREE, easy and only takes a few minutes.

Eligible farms and ranches are:

- Based in California
- Independent, family or cooperatively-owned
- Commercial farm businesses (i.e. farm products are grown and sold by the farm. No gardens, homesteads or hobby farms. Nonprofits are only permitted if they grow and sell and/or distribute agricultural products)

Instructions:

1. Visit www.caff.org/directoryform and click "Register" to create an account (or "Login" if you already have an account)
2. Create a profile for your farm.
3. Wait for your profile to be approved. A confirmation email will be sent.
4. To revise or update your listing at any time, simply log back in, navigate to your farm's profile and click the "Edit" button at the bottom of the page.

The more farms, the better for everyone. And the more visitors to this directory, the stronger our local food system. Whether it's a family seeking to join a local CSA, a distributor seeking to source a specific crop grown using specific practices, or even an organization like ours working from behind the scenes to support local agriculture, the California Farm Directory makes it easier for anyone, anywhere to find the farm they're looking for.

The California Farm Directory is a project of CAFF: Community Alliance with Family Farmers, proudly promoting local agriculture for over 40 years. Contact us with any questions.
